

INTERDISCIPLINARY RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM ON RELIGION AND MIGRATION IN AUSTRALIA AND THE PACIFIC

Thursday 7 March 2024

9.30 am - 3.30 pm
90 Albion Rd, Box Hill

EXPERT SPEAKERS

Dr Enqi Weng,
Deakin University,
Vice President,
Australian Association
for the Study of Religion

Prof. Mark G. Brett
Professor of Hebrew Bible,
Whitley College

Dr Nathan Wills
Barrister of Supreme Court of NSW/
Solicitor & Barrister at High Court of Australia
& Migration Agent

Dr Ruth Powell,
Director of NCLS
Research, Assoc. Prof
& Research Fellow,
Charles Sturt
University,

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
Prof. Fethi Mansouri, UNESCO Chair,
Alfred Deakin Research Chair, Director of the Alfred Deakin Institute for Citizenship and Globalisation at Deakin University-Australia.

Rev. Dr. Katalina
Tahaafe-Williams,
UCIC, SA

Rev. Dr Brian Koliah,
Malua TC, Samoa

Prof. Philip Hughes,
Emeritus Professor
AUC & CRA

UNIVERSITY
OF DIVINITY

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Migrant youth and the process of social-cultural adaptation in Western cities.
- How Asian migration is shaping the Australian Church: Insights on how Asian–Australians transmit faith practices to their children overview of Recent Immigration Impact on the Religious Profile of Australia
- The Bible, Migration and the Changing Face of Christianity in the Pacific Region.
- Global Displacement and Global Citizenship in Context of Migration and Social Policy
- Migration, Resettlement, and Legal Frameworks
- Promoting Religious Integration in an Era of Constant Human Mobility
- Migration Policies and Christian Advocacy
- A Decolonial Turn: A Sociological Rethinking of ‘Religion’ in Australia

BONUS! Better Neighbours Research Project Report

Rev. Dr Titus Olorunnisola, Rev. Assoc Prof. Darrell Jackson & Dr Alessia Passarelli (Italy) & Community Response Panel

Register now - click here

Humanitix

In-person $30 Online $15

Zoom link available closer to the date

✉ tolorunnisola@whitley.edu.au

